Gonzales ISD strives to provide a wealth of financial information to its taxpayers in an easily accessible manner.

The District has maintained, for several years, a robust financial transparency website. In addition, several budget workshops are held in the summer, a narrative format of the information provided on the District website, and monthly updates provided to the Board of Trustees during meetings which are open to the public free of charge.

Note: To complete your application, see the specific criteria page for the Traditional Finances Transparency Star which details visualizations, documents, downloadable data and other required information.
